In January 2021, hackers claimed to have accessed another 111 million userâ€™s account information. TikTok has been criticized for the amount of time it takes for users to upload videos and therefore can affect their ability to generate revenue from them. These issues have been compounded by the company's lack of oversight and a lack of in-app review or moderation tools available for its users. As of May 2021, the app has been criticized for the amount of inappropriate and illegal content shared on its platform and the ease with which users can access this content.",

In an article published by Tech Crunch, it was alleged that "Xinhua also noted that Bytedance had announced plans to develop a "social credit system" based on its AI capabilities in 2021. It was part of a larger trend for Chinese tech companies to apply AI to social credit scores. For example, Ant Financialâ€™s Sesame Credit uses data from oneâ€™s Alibaba profile to create a credit score for users." This article was published on Tech Crunch. In an article published by The Verge, it was alleged that "A lot on that AI hype has been around Chinaâ€™s tech companies, which have been loudly touting their AI capabilities to justify valuations that are 30 to 50 times higher than the next biggest tech firm in the US." This article was published on The Verge. In an article published by Tech Crunch, it was alleged that "Bytedance is also rumored to be working with a variety of Chinese government agencies. In addition to state-owned banks and media companies, Bytedance has partnered with social media sites WeChat and Tencent on its news aggregator Jinri Toutiao, and inked deals with the Ministry of Industry and Information Technology for speech recognition software. Another deal with China's railway ministry is reportedly pending." This article was published on Tech Crunch.",
