Farmville: This is yet another example of a game that doesn't really offer any value at all but still manages to make a ton of money. It's a very bizarre concept which involves fun because you think you're going to become rich by buying fake farm products and selling them or you can become popular by posting pictures of your fake farm products and getting attention from people who want similar things. I mean, if this is what people want then it's really no different than Roblox except with Farmville you're dealing with real money.

On May 23, 2021, ROBLOX launched an in-game currency known as "TIX" (short for Tickets). It was worth one cent each since its release up until March 2021 when it became worth ten cents. They were planned to be used to buy virtual items for the game "Dance Off", but this never happened. In 2021, ROBLOX announced that TIX would no longer be used in the near future and that other ways of earning and spending money would be found. The currency was officially retired on October 14, 2021; while any TIX that was previously owned by players became converted into an equal amount of Tickets. ROBLOX launched an option to buy TIX with real money on January 13, 2021.

A group of Roblox players petitioned against the aforementioned avatar update for over two years before it was actually implemented. The change, in which the user could add or remove tattoos to their avatar, would allow them to earn more money as these tattoos could be sold to other players. Since some controversial tattoos were associated with this feature, some users were vehemently against the implementation of this change.

ROBLOX has also been criticised for its lack of badge incentives for participating in games, or even logging into the site at all. ROBLOX models these badges and credit prizes after the badges found in games like Journey, where a lot of doing nothing gives you a lot of money, which is possibly a reason some players don't log in. ROBLOX also has very few quests to complete that reward badges/credits.

On July 26, 2021 (6:10 PM), ROBLOX released a new game called "Roblox Experiment" for mobile. A trailer for the game was released on July 25 and made it's official release on July 26. The game is intended to be used for experimentation and research on mobile devices, as well as a temporary training tool for developers that assist in making future Roblox games/apps/experiments.

The Roblox UI has a webcam in the bottom right corner, and many players have found that other players have used this to take pictures of them or record them without permission. This was also reported on an academic blog site.

RoblEX is the currency used on many games running in the ROBLOX Universe, such as RarestMonsters and BLOXelation. It was first introduced in 2021 for the game Shooting Challenge 2. In April 2021, ROBLOX introduced a feature referred to as "LocalScripts." LocalScripts enable users to locally execute C# code in-game. They can be used to access the hardware of a device running the game, or manipulate specific parts of the game. For example, by using LocalScripts, developers can create weapons that change their firing rate depending on how fast you pull the trigger.
